Sir:

The Japanese Patent document 07-090687 filed with applicants' IDS on March 15, 2007 does not correspond to any document cited in the Japanese office action issued February 13, 2007 in connection with the Japanese counterpart. While the number was correct, the document cited in the JPO office action was that for an examined application (not the "Kokai" of the same number), the first page of which is submitted herewith, along with a copy of the English language abstract of Publication Number 62-289421, another publication of the same Japanese application.

Also submitted herewith are copies of the Japanese office action issued February 13, 2007 and a corrected form 1449.

Respectfully submitted,
Bacon & Thomas
